SEMINAR TOPIC: "Relevance of Gandhian thought to the Society in the Present Context"
Date: 16.11.21

On the 14th Nov 2021 a departmental seminar on Philosophy on Relevance of Gandhian thought to the Society in the Present context was held in the presence of Dr. Laxmi Mishra, Principal, Kaptipada Degree College, N.M.J. in the presence of Dr. Laxmi Mishra, Principal, Kaptipada Degree College, N.M.J. and Dr. Manoj Mahapatra, IAS and departmental members of the college.

- 1. After a welcome to the department members by Miss and Mr. Mahapatra, the chief guest, Dr. Manoj Mahapatra, IAS, delivered a very interesting and informative lecture on the relevance of Gandhian thought to the present time. He focused on the application of various facets of Gandhian thought to follow -
 - 1. Civil Disobedience: This principle of truthfulness to self and to the public is essential for civil servants in the current world.
 - 2. Peace and Stability in the world: Gandhiji believed non-violence and tolerance requires a great deal of courage and patience.
 - 3. Secularism: Gandhianism was tolerant towards all religions and the world today needs more and more religious and faith like tolerant people in societies where different religions co-exist in the name of religion.
 - 4. Creation of Better Society: Gandhiji was against the caste system and urged the Rich to help the poor to pay respect to the human value.
 - 5. Gandhian Socialism: Gandhian view of socialism is not political but more social in its approach as Gandhiji thought of society as a whole with no priority.
 - 6. Decentralization: Gandhian idea of decentralization of power can be implemented in democracy through empowered local self-govt. at grass root level.
 - 7. Cleanliness: Gandhiji laid great emphasis upon cleanliness as he said to say 'Success this day'.
 - 8. Sustainable Environment: Gandhiji held that 'Earth has enough for human needs but not for human greed'.
 - 9. Ethical Implications: In the ethical and behavioural part Gandhian thought much significance today.
